HOUSE FINANCE PASSES BUDGET PROPOSAL

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE – Today the House Finance Committee passed the House Budget on a 13-9 vote. House Finance Chair Mary Jane Wallner (D-Concord) released the following statement:

“Today the House Finance committee passed a budget that Granite Staters can be proud of. We allocated an additional $164 million dollars to our schools, gave an additional $12 million to the Department of Transportation to keep our roads and bridges safe and increased funding mental health all while adding to our rainy-day fund. At the beginning of this process we set out to build a budget that works for all of New Hampshire and not just the few and that is what we accomplished.”
