DEMOCRATIC LEADER WELCOMES REPRESENTATIVE MURIEL HALL TO LEGISLATURE

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE – Representative Muriel Hall (D-Bow), winner of the Merrimack County District 23 House special election held on June 8, was sworn into office today by Governor Sununu. House Democratic Leader Representative Renny Cushing (D-Hampton) released the following statement:

“I am excited to welcome Representative Muriel Hall to the Democratic Caucus after constituents in Bow and Dunbarton voted overwhelmingly last week to elect her to the House of Representatives. As a longtime educator who recognizes the value of public education and service to her community, Muriel will be a much-needed voice in the State House and a critical addition to the largest Democratic minority in New Hampshire history.”
