DEMOCRATIC LEADER STATEMENT ON THE PASSING OF REP. KATHERINE ROGERS

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE –After State Representative Katherine Rogers (D-Concord) lost her battle with cancer on Sunday, April 10th surrounded by loved ones and her pug, Romeo, House Democratic Leader Rep. David E. Cote (D-Nashua) released the following statement: “Kathi Rogers was the epitome of a conscientious public servant and an outstanding legislator, whose devotion to duty was second to none. I knew her for forty years and admired greatly her keen intellect and fearless commitment to the public interest. This commitment was such that she commanded the respect of all who knew her, irrespective of party affiliation or passing disagreement. She was a pillar of our Caucus, and she will be greatly and continuously missed.”
