HOUSE DEMOCRATIC LEADER HONORS VISIT FROM FORMER PRESIDENT OF POLAND, LECH WAŁĘSA

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE – Today, the House of Representatives welcomed former President of Poland, Lech Wałęsa in joint convention with the Senate. Following President Wałęsa’s remarks, House Democratic Leader Rep. David Cote (D-Nashua) released the following statement:

“Granite Staters and people across the globe have long admired President Wałęsa’s fearless activism for human rights, labor justice, and Democracy. President Wałęsa’s message was an urgent and imperative one – that a Democratic society is fragile and as a world leader, America must continue its leading role in preserving it.”
